

INNOVATIVE DEVELOPMENTS AND SUSTAINABILITY OF ISEKI_Food NETWORK

The two main objectives of the ISEKI_Food 3 academic network project are:

- 1) To keep contributing to the establishment/promotion of European Higher Education in the field of Food Studies
- 2) To work towards the network's sustainability

This work will foster innovative developments, enhance the quality of food studies and improve the international attractiveness of European higher education via development/activities in the following areas:

- A Virtual Networking Environment (VNE);
- A European Quality Assurance System for Food Study Programmes (EQAS_Food);
- Facilitating / Promoting / Fostering Lifelong Learning in Higher Education: Employability Aligned Curricula and Accreditation of Prior Experiential Learning (APEL);
- Innovative Food Study Materials;
- Exploitation of network results through the ISEKI_Food Association (IFA).

The ISEKI_Food 3 network currently has 95 partners from 30 countries

Project duration: 1st October 2008 to 30th September 2011
